Editorial and Production Team: The authors' products were organized, edited, and formatted by an editorial and production team of skilled professionals. Wendy Wagman was lead editor for Volume II, with coordination by Stacey Efron. The exceptional teamwork and productivity of the following individuals is also acknowledged: Dianne W. Dorsey, Zoe Fedeles (Zoe Graphics), Christopher King, Heather Lewin, Patrick Lynch, Garth Redfield, and Kathy Ronan.

Project Team: Palmer Mason, State Legislative Affairs Representative in the District's Office of Policy and Legislation, was project sponsor for the 2005 SFER, and provided overall direction in its development. He also led the effort for legislative modification, along with Henry Bittaker, David Gilpin-Hudson, Beth Ross, and representatives from the other water management districts and the FDEP, in order to make water management district reporting in Florida more effective and efficient.

David Gilpin-Hudson, Lead Planner in the District's Finance and Administration Department, was the project manager for Volume II of the 2005 SFER, under the guidance of Volume II's Project Management Oversight Group, which included Debra Azeredo, Aaron Basinger, Doug Bergstrom, Palmer Mason, and Steve Reel. Additional methodological support was provided by Henry Bittaker, Stan Ford, and Garth Redfield.

Volume II included the development of the Consolidated Project Report Database, which was programmed by Marcy Cautreels. The database content review team included Maribel Balbin, Susan Bennett, David Gilpin-Hudson, Palmer Mason, Pattie Nicholas, Barbara Ross, Greg Rogers, Beth Williams, and Carl Woehlcke. Project information that populated the database was provided by the relevant project managers and chapter authors.
